DAILY PITTSBURGH GAZETTE.

MONDAY AFTERNOON, DEC. 23, 1833.

☞MAIL.—No papers from beyond Lancaster this morning.

LEGISLATIVE CONVENTION.—It is stated, in the Harrisburgh Chronicle, that there were eighty four members of the legislature in this assembly.

THE CAUCUS AT HARRISBURG.—We cannot omit the proceedings of a meeting of the Democratic members of the Legislature, in favor of a National Convention.—It is somewhat curious that no reference should be made to the number assembled; but we may infer, from the language used, that all the Democratic members were there congregated. If any man should dare to doubt the Democratic character of this assemblage, we will remove all their doubts by the assurance that they were so scrupulous that they probably would not have admitted among them such old aristocrats as Lacock, and Clarke, and Hilands. If any man should be foolish enough to suppose that they were not all original, genuine, true blue democrats, we will merely remind him that William Robinson, jr., and Thomas S. Cunningham were prominent members; surely, this must settle the matter, as no man who is acquainted with either of these patriots would ever suspect them of mingling with any other than real democrats. Neither of them could for one moment abide the presence of a federalist. What! William Robinson, jr., attend a meeting where there were present any other than democrats!! Why the very thought is monstrous, and the suggestion is an insult to the long tried and well established character of this sterling democrat.

Hartford Convention men may escape the "second section"—nullifiers may eschew the penalties of the Force Bill"—but the rash fellow who would dare to doubt the democracy of William Robinson, jr., will forever writhe under the frowns of our Post Master and President maker, and the castigations of the truth loving and independent editor of the Pittsburgh Mercury.

There is one thing in the history of the democracy of our county which we have never been able to comprehend.—We refer to their unrelenting opposition to the federal party, and their devoted servility to federalists who have pretended to abandon their party and to become democrats.

We have never been able to satisfy ourselves whether the democratic party was really gulled in such cases, and really believed that some change had taken place in the minds of such apostate federalists, or, whether democrats had such innate and irresistible respect and admiration for a party which boasted of such leaders as Washington, and Hamilton, and Jay, and John Adams, that they were eager to bow down even to the scape goats of that party. The reason we cannot precisely know, but the effect is obvious and undeniable.—For the last seventeen years the democratic party, in this county, has been the humble follower of apostate federalists.

Charles Shaler, during the late war, was a most violent ultra federalist; one morning, however, just after breakfast, he declared that he was a democrat; at once democratic hats were thrown up, and democratic throats bellowed out, "Huzza for Chas. Shaler, the original democrat." From that time, for several years, a wink from Judge Shaler was a law to the democratic party.

James S. Stevenson came here a thorough bred federalist—Judge Shaler, however, took him in hand, dipped him into the political cauldron, and at once he came out an original democrat; and, from that time, for several years, it was Mr. Stevenson's wink that ruled the democratic party.—Some federalists, being tired of the rule of Mr. Stevenson, prevailed upon Judge Wilkins to run against him.—A warm and animated controversy took place—the Judge was denounced as a federalist, by Messrs. Lynch, Mulvany, &c.; but, by his personal popularity, and the exertions of his friends, was elected. Subsequently, however, Messrs. Lynch and Mulvany take him into hand, patronize him, and in a short time turn him out an original democrat, and command all good democrats to serve and obey him as such.

James S. Craft, also, came here a boasting federalist—he was, however, dipped and "dyed in the wool;" and, like his predecessors, he has also become a giver of law, in a small way, to the great democratic family of Allegheny County.

Finally, William Robinson, jr., has undergone the necessary operations, and has been turned out as good a democrat as the best of them, and no doubt, hereafter, the support of him will be the test of democracy.—So that, for seventeen years, the idol of the democratic party, in this county, has been an apostate federalist. Some men would suppose that a party, professing great independence, would rebel at once against the continued succession of federalists as their leaders. Persons would expect that a party which talked so largely about their independent principles, would, at least once in twenty years, choose a leader from their own ranks.

There is a little more of personality in these remarks than we would choose, but we constantly hear so much slang about democracy, democratic meetings, democrats, from such creatures as the editors of the Democrat, the Manufacturer, and the Mercury, that we cannot refrain from holding up to the good democrats of this county a true and genuine picture of their party and its leaders.—It is, truly, a remarkable circumstance, that the intelligent democratic party of Allegheny county cannot trust a federalist until he has degraded himself and prostituted his character by desertion and apostacy—but as soon as that apostacy and desertion has taken place, they exalt him to their highest honors. We recollect no parallel to this, unless it be in the history of the Japanese, who will not tolerate Christians among them until they publicly trample upon the cross.

In the House of Representatives, on motion of Mr. Stewart, it was

Resolved, That the Report of the Secretary of War, on the subject of a national road, from Union town, by way of Pittsburgh, to the Lakes, be referred to the Committee on Roads and Canals.

The Deposit Question.—The House resumed the consideration of Mr. Polk's motion to reconsider the reference of Mr. Taney's report, on the removal of the deposits, to a committee of the Whole.

Mr. Speight being anxious, he said, to bring this preliminary question to a close, demanded the previous question.

But the House refused to second his call—Yeas 102, Nays, 113.

The Debate was then resumed and continued by the following gentlemen in succession, viz:

Mr. Denny, of Pennsylvania;
Mr. Vanderpool, of New York;
Mr. McDuffie, of South Carolina;
Mr. Sutherland, of Pennsylvania;
Mr. Foot, of Connecticut;
Mr. Jones, of Georgia;
Mr. Payton, of Tennessee;
Mr. Davis, of Massachusetts;
Mr. Lane, of Indiana—and then

The question was taken on reconsidering the reference of Mr. Taney's Report to a Committee of the Whole, and decided in the affirmative—yeas 124, nays 102.

Mr. Polk then moved to refer the report to the Committee of Ways and Means.

Mr. McDuffie then moved to amend the motion so as to instruct the Committee on Ways and Means to report a bill, or resolution, ordering the deposits of the public moneys to be henceforth made in the Bank of the United States.

After making this motion, Mr. M'Duffie moved an adjournment, the hour being late. This motion was resisted, and a count by tellers called, when it appeared that there were 111 ayes to 101 noes. So the House adjourned.

Wednesday, December 18.—In Senate, Mr. Clay offered the following resolutions, which lie one day on the table:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Treasury be directed to communicate to the Senate a copy of the entire letter addressed by Mr. Crawford, when Secretary of the Treasury, under date the 13th February, 1817, to the President of the Mechanics' Bank of New York, an extract from which is recited in his Report to Congress, of the 3d December, 1833; and copies of the other correspondence of Mr. Crawford with the Banks about that period, to passages in which the Secretary alludes in the same Report.

Resolved, also, That the Secretary be directed to communicate to the Senate a copy of the correspondence between the agent appointed, during the last summer, to inquire upon what terms the State Banks would undertake to perform the services to the Government which had been performed by the Bank of the United States and the said Banks: a copy of the report made, if one were made, by the agent of the Secretary, or to the Executive; the name of the agent, his compensation, and in virtue of what law he was so appointed.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The Chair then called the Special Order, being the Report of the Secretary of the Treasury on the subject of the removal of the Deposits, &c.

Mr. Clay then rose and said, that he was still of opinion that this subject required a very early and prompt decision. But some information which had been called for, and which it was necessary to have before the discussion came on, had not yet been received; and other information equally necessary would probably be asked for to morrow. This would cause delay, and he therefore did not propose at present to go into the discussion. He was also desirous, when the subject should be taken up, to close what he would have to say with some resolutions, which he had not yet prepared.

He therefore moved to postpone the consideration of the Special Order, until Monday, which motion was agreed to.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MEMORIAL FROM THE BANK OF THE UNITED STATES.

Mr. Binney presented the following memorial from the Bank of the United States:

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States:

The board of directors of the Bank of the U. S. respectfully represent—

That, by the charter of the bank, it was stipulated between the Congress of the United States and the Stockholders of the Bank of the United States, that in consideration of a full equivalent rendered by them, in money and services, they were entitled to the custody of the public moneys, which were not to be withdrawn from it, unless for reasons, of the sufficiency of which, congress, and congress alone, was the final judge.

That the bank has in all things faithfully performed the stipulations of the charter.

Nevertheless, since the adjournment of congress, the Secretary of the Treasury has issued an order on the 26th of September last, withdrawing from the possession of the bank, the custom house bonds deposited therein, and has subsequently transferred into certain state banks a large portion of the public moneys then in the safe keeping of the bank, with the purpose of making them hereafter the permanent depositories of the public revenue.

The Board of Directors therefore deem it their duty forthwith to apprize your Honorable Bodies of this violation of the chartered rights of the Stockholders, and to ask such redress therefor, as to your sense of justice may seem proper.

By order of the Board:

N. BIDDLE,
President of the Bank of the United States.

Philadelphia, Dec. 9th, 1833.

Mr. Binney moved that the memorial be laid on the table, and printed.

Mr. Polk moved its reference to the Committee of Ways and Means, and demanded the yeas and nays on the motion for laying it upon the table.

Mr. Binney called for the reading of the memorial; and it was read accordingly.

The question then recurring upon laying it upon the table, the yeas and nays were taken, and resulted as follows—Yeas 80, Nays 126.

So the House refused to lay the memorial on the table.

Mr. Polk's motion for its reference to the Committee of Ways and Means being about to be put—

Mr. Chilton moved to amend it by adding instructions to the Committee to bring in a Joint Resolution ordering the Secretary to redeposit in the Bank of the United States, the public moneys which, by his order, had been removed from that institution.

Mr. Chilton addressed the House at great length in support of his motion for instructions, in a speech, the report of which must, of necessity, be deferred to another day.

Mr. McDuffie, at the close of Mr. Chilton's speech, requested him to withdraw his motion, as a decision upon it would, in some measure, forestall the consideration of another motion now before this House.

Mr. Chilton, with some complimentary remarks, consented, and his motion was withdrawn accordingly.

The Memorial was then referred to the Committee of Ways and Means, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Stewart submitted the following resolution, which, according to a rule of the House, lies one day before being acted upon:

Resolved, That the Secretary of War be directed to communicate to this House the report of the Engineer employed to make a survey, plan, and estimate, with a view to the improvement of the steam boat navigation of the Monongahela river.

On motion of Mr. C. Johnson, it was

Resolved, That all the papers and documents now on the files of the House in relation to the establishment of an Armory on the Western waters, be referred to the Committee on Military Affairs, and that they have leave to report by bill or otherwise.

Thursday, December 19.—In the Senate, Mr. Grundy offered the following resolutions.

Resolved 1st, That the Postmaster General be directed to communicate to the Senate a statement of all the allowances, by him made, beyond the sums stipulated in the original contract, since the 6th of April, 1829, specifying, in every case, the service to be performed by the original contract, and the sums to be paid thereon, the nature and extent of each facility or improvement, and the extra allowance made therefor, and the name of the persons to whom the allowance has been made, and at what time.

2d. A statement of the curtailments of facilities lately made by the department, specifying each rout, and the names of the respective contractors, and the amount of the diminution of service and of compensation, in each case; also, what routs, if any, have been discontinued.

3d. The expenses incurred in putting into operation the post routs, established by the act of the 15th June, 1832; cost of transporting the mail on said routs in each year.

The resolutions having been read,

Mr. Grundy requested their immediate consideration. The question being then on their adoption,

Mr. Clay said he was happy that the gentleman from Tennessee had offered these resolutions. He would give his vote for them with great pleasure. If what public rumor had said concerning this office was correct, there was no branch of Government in this or any other country, where there prevailed greater abuses. It was the duty of the Senate not only to correct the past, but to provide a remedy. He wished that the resolution should be so limited, as to its call, as not to allow the Postmaster General a pretext for evading it, because he was apprehensive that every delay which could be devised would be interposed to prevent a reply. The Senate might otherwise be told of voluminous contracts, and might be referred to the ancient documents to illustrate the charge of error which he had alleged against the Department, even as far back as the days of Habersham.

Mr. Grundy informed the Senator from Kentucky that the resolution did limit the call to the year 1829, the period when the present Postmaster General came into office. The gentleman from Kentucky had referred to certain rumors which charged gross abuses on the Department. He had supposed that the Senator from Kentucky, and every body else, would not be willing to give very great credit to what public rumor said in reference either to a public department, or to a public man. He desired to have the truth; and when he had got it, and examined the facts, he would be ready to give his opinion whether any corruption existed in the Department or not. It was true that rumor had said a great deal; and he wanted the facts, if it was true, in order that the country might discern them. If nothing censurable had occurred, he desired to see the rumor put down, and that was the only way in which justice could be done to any public man. The people could then form their judgment from the facts, and not from any thing published in a partizan paper. He could not conceive the possibility of any delay being interposed, and he had no doubt that in a few weeks all the information asked by this resolution, and as much more as any Senator might call for, would be furnished.

Mr. CLAY said, he had overlooked the limitation in the resolution, and was satisfied with it.

The Report of the Secretary of War gives, upon the whole, a satisfactory account of the arrangements that are being carried into execution, respecting the disposition and future location, west of the Mississippi, of various Indian tribes now residing within some of our States and Territories. Florida will, it is said, be thus in a short time disencumbered of the entire population of the warlike Seminoles, and State of Mississippi of the Chickasaws, except such of the latter as may choose to remain and become citizens of that State. The Choctaws, to the number of 15,000, have already emigrated from Alabama, and 1,500 only remain, who have declined to accompany the main body, and it is these few who are said to be the worst portion of the tribe. The negotiations to effect the removal of the Creeks from that state are still pending. The Sacs and Foxes have already removed to the region assigned to them, and the Winnebagoes to their lands north of the Ouisconsin. The whole of the States of Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois, and the Territory of Michigan, to the Fox and Ouisconsin rivers, have been cleared of their Indian population, with the exception of portions of the Miamies, Wyandots, Ottaways, and Chippeways, not exceeding, altogether, 500 individuals. About 11,000 of the populous tribe of Cherokees still persist in remaining on their lands in Tennessee.

The army is represented in a flourishing condition, increased pay is recommended to the medical officers, and a fund to be created for families of indigent officers and soldiers by a deduction of the pay of those in service.—Evening Star.

Banks.—The mania for establishing new State Banks, appears to pervade the whole country.—We sincerely regret to see that almost every State legislature now in session, has on its tables, numerous petitions for the establishment of new Banks; as though multiplying Banks, were really to increase the capital of the country—whereas a Bank is nothing more than an association of persons, with the power to issue promissory notes, payable in specie on demand. And as the specie in the country is probably now not more, at a very moderate calculation, than one tenth part of the amount of the Bank notes that are already issued—we would ask whether there can be any safety in increasing the number of notes of that description—just at this time?—Mercantile Advertiser.

BOSTON, Dec. 16.

From Europe.—By the brig Velocity, from Halifax, with the Falmouth mail for November, the Messrs. Topliff have received a Falmouth paper, of Nov. 9th, containing London dates of the evening of the 7th.

The only fact stated in this paper of importance, in addition to the accounts from Lisbon, is that Cordova, the Spanish Ambassador at Lisbon, hitherto a devoted Carlist, has declared his adhesion to the Queen.

Accounts from Bilboa are to the 27th October, which represent the Carlists as successful in every quarter. The number of men near Bilboa is said to be about twenty thousand, consisting of banditti and priests.

FALMOUTH, Nov. 9.—H. M. steamer Confidence arrived this morning from Lisbon, which she left 3d inst. Letters received by her state that Don Miguel, with all his army, were still at Santarem, which they were busily fortifying, and there is no doubt but that they will hold it all the winter.—Don Pedro's forces are well encamped in front of the town, but it was not expected they will venture to attack the Miguelites. The constitutional force had taken several parties of Guerillas, who were immediately shot. Donna Maria had been acknowledged by the Belgian and German Courts.

A Short account of Liberia.—There are no grog shops in the Colony, nor more than two intemperate persons out of the whole population of 3500. A license to retail ardent spirits costs 300 dollars.—The state of morals is good. Not a single capital offence has been committed. There is very little gambling or Sabbath breaking. Not a single riot has occured. Shoemaking is a lucrative business; and so are all mechanical employments.

An emigrant, on his arrival, has a building lot assigned him and a five acre pasture lot—if he selects the country, he has 50 acres given him.—Agricultural pursuits flourish, but the settlers are fonder of trading. The Colony is healthy. There are fewer swamps than in lower Virginia, and less frogs. The water is good. A man may get employment immediately on his arrival. The natives are friendly, and come a long distance from the interior to see the settlement. The native females are much better looking than the colored women in the United States, and many of them have married settlers.

Gold and silver, and palm oil, are the medium of exchange. Many persons have become wealthy. The slave trade is forbidden under heavy penalties.

In short it is apparent, from indisputable testimony, of which we have availed ourselves in the above remarks, that the population of Liberia are happily situated.—Albany Daily Advertiser.

The House of Representatives did not, yesterday, in the regular course of business, reach the Order of the Day, which related to the Government Deposits question. The following are the precise terms of the instructions proposed by Mr. M'Duffie, as an amendment to Mr. Polk's motion to refer the Report of Mr. Taney to the Committee of Ways and Means:

"With instructions to report a joint resolution, providing that the public revenue hereafter collected shall be deposited in the Bank of the United States, in compliance with the public faith, pledged by the charter of the said Bank."—Nat. Intel. Dec. 19.

Much is expected from Mr. M'Duffie, on the subject of the deposits, this winter; and we do not believe the public will be disappointed. He will will fearlessly assail power in its highest places.—Alex. Gaz.

CAUTION.

N. W. BANK OF VA., Wheeling, Dec. 17.

The public are cautioned against receiving notes of this Institution, altered from Fives to Tens—they are of the old plate, and may easily be detected by observing that the vignette of the Fives is a Phœnix arising from its ashes—whilst that of the Tens is an Eagle, holding in its beak a chain, to which a shield is attached.

J. LIST, Cashier.

The scenes of 1814–15 returning.—The Albany Argus publishes a list of ninety eight announced applications to the Legislature of New York for the incorporation of new Banks and Loan Companies, comprising a capital (nominal) of fifty millions of dollars! "All this capital (says the N. York American in copying the list,) to be granted, or whatsoever of it is granted, by a political body, and, as heretofore of late years, with political views. If, both on the score of the general currency, and that of public morality, this, be not calculated to alarm the State, we know not what can. We may, too, in looking at this table, find some of the motives for the persecution, so systematically carried on by order of the Party, against the Bank of the United States. Its excess of specie, which the President of the United States seems to consider a new cause of offence and disrespect towards him and the government of the Kitchen; and its salutary restraining power would be sad obstacles to the mushroom class of new banks, which seek to raise their heads under the auspices of the Safety Fund."

PRIVATE CORRESPONDENCE.

Extract of a letter from Cincinnati, dated, December 15.

I was present at the M'LEAN meeting last evening. Notwithstanding the extreme inclemency of the weather, the distance of the Court House from the centre of the City, and the darkness of the night, the house was crowded, and every thing went off well. Gen. FINDLAY, acted as President; JOHN J. WRIGHT, THOMAS LEWIS, and WM. STEWART, as Vice Presidents; GEO. GRAHAM, jr., S. FINDLAY, and O. M. SPENCER, as Secretaries. A committee of fifteen drafted and reported a preamble and resolutions; which were adopted. A corresponding committee was appointed; and the people of the Wards of the City, the townships of the county, and the other counties of the State, were invited to meet, organize, and express their opinions. The Nationals, mostly, stood aloof. The Republican refused to publish the call of the meeting, even as an advertisement.—[That's Republicanism for you.]

We are highly gratified to observe, in an evening paper, that the Life of General Hamilton, by his third son, John C. Hamilton, Esq., is now in press, and will shortly be published, by Messrs. Halstead & Voorhies, of this city. No part of the history of our institutions can be more interesting than that most intimately connected with the life of this illustrious citizen. His early and extensive acquaintance with those of his compeers, who labored in the establishment of our system of government, must have enabled his biographer to make known to us many interesting anecdotes that have never yet been given to the public; while his masterly organization of the fiscal department, and his great Report of 1792, we think, give an earnest that on that subject we may have in this work a further light from his luminous mind.—*N. FAIRBANK'S PLATFORM SCALES.

THESE scales are constructed upon an improved principle; are fitted up with great care by the manufacturers, and warranted to weigh with accuracy from half a pound to 12,000. Being placed in, and forming part of, the floor, the process of weighing is performed with ease and facility, while the space they occupy may be improved as a passage way or for other purposes.

The construction of these scales is such that they are little liable to derangement of wear, and their perfect operation will be guaranteed for any reasonable length of time.

The usual objection, that a new method of weighing cannot be safely entrusted to unskilful hands, is obviated by the use of the improved BALANCE, concerning which are the following remarks in the Journal of the Franklin Institute, of the state of Pennsylvania, for the promotion of the Mechanic Arts, for June, 1833. (Edited by Thos. P. Jones, M. D., late Superintendent of the Patent Office, at Washington, Professor of Mechanics in the Franklin Institute, &c.

"The Messrs. Fairbanks, some time since, obtained a patent for a Platform Weighing Machine, and this mode of adjuating and graduating the Beam of the Balance, and the weights, was devised by them with a view to its employment with the before mentioned machine. We have had an opportunity of examining one of their balances, and have been much pleased with it: this examination, however, was not necessary to the conviction that it possesses a just claim to the character of a real improvement, the whole arrangement being so simple as to enable any person to perceive that it is well adapted to the purpose contemplated, that of facilitating the business of weighing, and more especially of heavy articles."

The subscriber, as Agent, will receive orders for the above Scales, which will be made in this city to order. They can be seen at his Warehouse, No. 84, Front street.

Nov. 8, 1833. MOSES ATWOOD.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

THE Subscribers, Trustees of the New Philadelphia Society, at Phillipsburgh, Beaver county, Pennsylvania, offer for sale the following property, to wit:

1	tract of land	containing	330 acres
1	do	do	330
1	do	do	67
1	do	do	7
1	do	do	40
other lots, containing about			6

The above lands lie in one body, fronting about two miles upon the Ohio river—immediately opposite the mouth of Big Beaver creek, and the Beaver Division of the Pennsylvania Canal. The land is rich, and a part of it under a high state of cultivation—its location pleasant and healthy. The improvements upon the same are valuable, including the town of Phillipsburgh, late the residence of Count Leon, and the New Philadelphia Society. The town contains about 40 Dwelling Houses, now in order; some of them brick houses and two stories high. A large and spacious Hotel, a Store house, Church, a number of Shops, for mechanics, Stables, Barns, and other out houses. Also, two large new buildings, lately erected, but not yet finished, one of brick, the other of frame (the latter suitable for a manufactory) a very extensive public garden, and also fruit trees of various kinds. The property has also attached to it the right of a ferry across the Ohio, which is valuable, and becoming more so every day.

The above property is situated in the midst of a wealthy and prosperous country, distant about 28 miles below Pittsburgh, and one mile from Beaver, the seat of justice for Beaver county---and having a view for many miles up and down the Ohio, and of the country to a great distance around.

The subscribers are confident in saying that few situations could be found, presenting greater facilities to the farmer, mechanic, the manufacturer, and others--- a soil rich and productive---the neighborhood abounding in coal---well timbered [illegible] tered, and, by means of the Pennsylvania [illegible] and steamboat navigation, a cheap and ready conveyance to market, and a communication with other places is ensured.

The property is susceptible of divisions into farms, or for the location of new towns, or for the extension of the present one.

Should it not be sold on or before the first day of January next, it will then be offered at public sale, upon the premises, to the highest and best bidder.

It will be sold in a body, or in parcels, to suit purchasers.

Terms of sale will be reasonable.

Information can be had by enquiring of the subscribers, two of whom live in the neighborhood, and one on the premises.

DOCTOR ROBERT'S

☞WELCH MEDICAMENTUM.☜

FOR the cure of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Cholic, Fever and Ague, Dysentery, Headach, Loss of Appetite, Flatulence, Hypochondria, Hysterics, Dropsical Complaints, and Heartburn, It also prevents all Bilious disorders, and removes habitual Costiveness, Asthma, Strangury, Gravel, Rheumatism, Gout, and Impurities of the Blood.

A person who uses this Medicamentum will not require the use of the lancet, or any means of the healing art. It restores and revives the animal spirits, invigorates the system, removes nervous tremors, obtunds rheumatic and anthritic pains, and prevents their return. It cleanses the stomach of all morbid humors, which cause indigestion, acidities, headach, and lowness of spirits; cures all bilious disorders, and all cholics of the stomach and bowels, almost immediately; inspires cheerfulness; gives comfort to the dropsical; takes away palpitation of the heart; gives circulation to the blood; restores bloom to the sallow or sickly cheek, and plumpness to the meagre habit; purges without pain, and banishes all cause of fever of every kind. It acts on the stomach, that great reservoir of the human system, a diseased state of which causes all diseases. No alteration in the usual habits of life is required, but the abstaining from distilled ardent spirits.

CERTIFICATE,

From Rev. Derick Lansing, D. D., Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in Utica.

UTICA, Jan. 6, 1830.

To Dr. Hitchcock.—Dear Sir: I have always been one of the number of those who have placed little confidence in nostrums or specifics, and for this reason, although I saw your advertisement of the Welch Medicamentum, I could not bring my mind to consent to use it. My sufferings, from indigestion, during the past summer, were so severe, as materially to affect my comfort, and my capacity for usefulness. I have reason to thank you, sir, that, on hearing of the state of my health, you kindly sent me your Medicamentum. I have taken it faithfully, and with entire success. I have not been visited with one of those turns of distress, which before were weekly periodical, since I began to take your valuable medicine. Could I receive the same relief which I have hitherto experienced, on condition of taking it for life, I should cheerfully comply with such condition. Your's, very truly, D. C. LANSING.

ANTI-DYSPEPTIC ELIXER.

ONE of the most agreeable and efficacious Medicines ever discovered for the permanent cure of those chronic states of derangement of the stomach, constituting that miserable disease called Dyspepsia.

The basis of this Elixer s vegetables, and perfectly innocent in its operation; it destroys that sour state of the stomach, the instant it is taken, and stops the morbid secretion, by giving strength to the muscular fibre of that important organ, by which means the peristaltic motion of the intestines is increased, and the costiveness obviated; a new action is given to the system, which puts an end to a train of distressing nervous sensations.

Another form of the disease in which the Elixer is admirably calculated to relieve, is the decline of fever, where the stomach will not bear the ordinary strengthening medicines indicated in such cases, it has the surprising effect of giving vigor, and restoring the natural secretions of the body, without increasing the febrile state. Not the least danger is to be apprehended from expesure to cold, while under the use of this medicine, nor will it interrupt necessary employment of the patient a single hour.

☞A number of cases of cures performed by the Anti-Dyspeptic Elixer in the vicinity of Pittsburgh can be given.

GEO. W. CARPENTER'S
COMPOUND SYRUP OF LIVERWORT,

A SAFE and Valuable Medicine for Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Consumption, and Liver Complaints.

Most of the medicines made use of for the above diseases are of a stimulating nature, composed generally of Resins and Balsams, in alcoholic solutions, which, although sometimes giving temporary relief, in almost every instance where they are freely used, aggravate the disease, and reduce the strength of the patient.

This article possesses superior advantages over these preparations, its action being of a tonic, invigorating and strengthening nature, thus overcoming the disease by promoting expectoration, and gradually increasing the strength of the patient, and thus, without being attended with any unpleasant effects: it also agrees with the stomach, in a cases. and is a pleasant medicine to take.

PATENT PLANING MACHINE.—The right to use this valuable machine, invented and patented by William Woodworth, and known as Woodworth's Patent Planing Machine, may be obtained on application to the subscriber for the counties of Allegheny, Butler, Beaver, Washington, Green, Fayette, Somerset, Cambria, Indiana, Jefferson, Clearfield, M'Kean, Warren, Venango, Mercer, Crawford, and Erie, in the State of Pennsylvania. That part of Maryland lying west of the Blue Ridge; all that part of Virginia lying west of the Blue Ridge, except the county of Ohio. The whole of the state of Ohio except the counties of Hamilton, Butler, and Montgomery. The whole of the state of Kentucky, except the counties of Jefferson, Boone, Oldham, Gallatin, and Campbell. The whole of Indiana, except the counties of Floyd, Clark, Jefferson, Dearborn, and Switzerland. The whole of the state of Illinois, and the territory of Michigan. Rights to use the machine in that part of the United States, named above, will be sold by the single county or in larger districts. As it is presumed that no one will purchase without seeing the machine at work, a description of it is deemed unnecessary. Should any person, however, wish to purchase, and find it inconvenient to visit the places where it is in operation, a machine will be furnished, warranted to plane, tongue and groove, and bring to an exact width and thickness, a white pine board of 12 feet long, and of any width from 1 to 14 inches, in one minute and ten seconds, or an oak board of the same dimensions in 2 minutes and 10 seconds. Machines may be seen at work in the cities of New Orleans, Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, and others at the south and east, at Wheeling, Virginia, and at the saw mill of Messrs. Irwin & Herron, in this city.

Persons desiring to purchase will have the certificates of scientific and practical men who have seen it at work, in the different places in which it has been put up, forwarded to them. They give their opinion as to the great value of the invention, state the time they have seen boards dressed by this machine, and describe the quality of the work as compared with that performed by hand labor.
